Fallston Foundry!

ENGINE & REPAIR SHOP,

In Fallston Beaver County, Pa.

HAVING refitted and enlarged my stock of machinery and tools, and having secured the services of the best of mechanics, I am prepared to warrant all work done to give entire satisfaction. I have on hand different patterns and styles of Engines, Fire Clay Rolls, and am prepared to make or repair all descriptions of machinery, on reasonable terms.

Plows and Plow Castings.

I have all the best plow patterns that suit this market, among which is the "Great Western," which has been THE plow of the county for the last fifteen years. Therefare five sizes of this plow, all of which I manufacture and keep for sale; also "Patent Lever"—right and left—"Mountain King."—right and left—"Side Hill," and nearly all the different kinds in use.

Cooking, Franklin and Heating Stoves.

Having made several important improvements on the "Climax," by which coal or wood can supplied without lifting lids, and having two places for pipe, either or both of which can be used at the same time, with a ventilation to the oven, thus having the advantages of a Cooking Stove, Bake Oven and Franklin Stove combined. This stove has been in constant use for twenty years, and many of them after being used for this period of time, are now in good order. There is but a small portion of this stove that ever burns out, and this is easily and cheaply replaced. To make them still more lasting, we are now putting in tile or fire brick lining. Our other patterns are the Enterprise, Keystone and Premium. Parlor stoves, large and small heating stoves, Franklin stoves, Jenny Lind's, &c. Grate and Grate Fronts, Fenders, Iron Railing of various styles, Wagon Boxes, two Irons, Tire Benders, Corn Shellers, Force and Cistern Pumps, Sad Irons, Metal Sinks for kitchen, Sheet Iron and Tin ware, always on hand and made to order. In fact, I manufacture and keep for sale, almost everything wanted in the machinery or hardware line.

Second hand stoves always for sale cheap. Two good new engines, suitable for sam-mill or shop purposes now on hand, and will be sold reasonable.

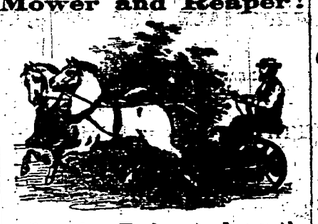
FARMERS, READ THIS!

Buckeye

Mower and Reaper!



Again Triumphant!

This extensively known, and deservedly popular Machine was submitted to the most vigorous test of its superiority, at a trial of competing machines that took place under the management of the New York Society, at Auburn, N. Y., in July 1866. The committee consisted of eleven judges, and forty machines were entered as contestants for the prize.—The trial lasted three weeks and the tests were most thorough The result was announced at the State Fair held at Saratoga on the 12th of Sept. last, and the

THE RADICAL CHANGE—A SLIGHT ALTERATION IN THE NAME AND POLICY OF MR. NASBY'S "INSTITOOT."

POST OFFICE, CONFEDRIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the Stait uv Kentucky)
April 22, 1867.

Times change, and men change jist as fast as times. I shood like to see the times wich kin change faster than I kin, but this last shift I hev bin forced to make, ruther took my breth. It wuz sudden. The Connecticut electshun didn't do us much good after all. We felt well over it for perhaps a day, but as we begun to git other indicasheens from the North, we did n't jist see how that little spirit was a goin to help us. Cincinnati went Ablisht stronger than ever—Chicago ditto, and most everywhere the Dimocratic rooster wuz flattened. The Cabinet, when they heard of Deacon Pogram's assault upon the nigger on the recect uv the intelligence uv the electshun news, notified me offshelly that a repetishen uv sich loosacy wood be equivalent to a recect uv my resignation, even tho the post offs shood be discontinyood. "The nigger vote must be capchord; it's essertial; Wade Hampton sez so," wrote Randall to me, and I reprimanded the Deakin for his recklessniss, and borrowed four dollars uv Bascom, who is the only man in the vicinity, who hez any ready money, to make it all right with him.

We held a meeting uv the Drecktors and Faculty uv the Southern Military and Classticle Institoot last evnin, to decide wat course that institooshn wuz to take in the grate work uv surroundin the Ethioplan and attachin uv him to us. In sich a time ez this, ez I menshend to Captin McPelter, it wont do for our instooshins uv learnin to stand back. These grate levers, the molders uv public opinion, must be ex progressive as the progressivest, and must change like other things, to meet the requirements uv the times. We hev commenst our march into Afrika, and thus far hev we gone into the bowels of the land without impadiment to speak uv. Let us persevere. Let us capcher the Ethoplan, stink and all.

The meetin wuz held in the back room uv Bascom's, owin to the fact that it wuz rainin and the roof of the Post Offis leaks. I hed an appropriashn some time since from the Department, for repairs; but bein in doubt whether it wuz intended for repairs on the Post Offis or the Post Master, I gave the prisner the benefit of the doubt and got a new pair uv boots. I cood better endoor the slight inconvenience uv occasional rain than to go barefoot.

I made a statement of the case and sejested a change of name in the institoot.

Capt. McPelter agreed with me. He felt that there hedn't bin that complete, hearty recognition of our Afrikin brethren wich there ought to be. He hed on several occasions allowed his natural vivacity to git the better of his proodence, and hed waded into em alarmin. The old idee of Ham and Hagar and Onesimus hed bin so drilled into him in his yooth that he hed to wrassle with it to keep it in control, and in spite uv himself it frekently got the better uv him. He sejested that the name of the institoot be changed from

"The Southern Military and Classicle Institoot," to
"The Ham and Japheth Free Ademcay, for the development uv the intelleck uv all races, irrespective uv color."

That he thot wood anser the required end. The colored gentlemen who chose to avale theirselves uv the priviigis afforded by this institooshn, when it is finished, kin find in this no cause uv complaint. They're recognized. They are given the predence. They stand first in the matter and foremost. What more kin they ask?

Bascom hed a series uv resolooshuns wich he desired to present. He sed it might be looked upon ez strange that he shood favor the concentration uv free niggers at the Corners, but he hed good and sufficshent reasons. First, he had faith that constant contact with the Board wood bring em to the pint of patronizen his bar, but ef it didn't he knowed perfectly well that the Board and Fakulty wood manage to get all they hed, for board and teoltion, wich he wuz perfectly certin he'd git in the end. Wat he wanted wuz people here—to yoose a illustration borrowed from his bisnis, the offishels uv this institoot wus the funnel through wich the wealth uv all uv em wood be conducted to his coffers. I fell on his neck in rapcher and then vowed that I wuz willin to die for his good—that I cared not how much uv other people's money run through me to him, if twuz thus dilooted. The resolooshens presented read as follows:

Resolved, That the name uv the Southern Military and Classikle Institoot be changed to "The Ham and Japheth Free Academy, for the development uv the intelleck uv all races, irrespective uv color."

Resolved, That in makin this change, we, the Board and Directors, do so, assertin

1. That in this emergency we are justified in doubtin whether Noer got tite at all, the statement in the Skripters to that effect being only an error of the translators.

2. That ef he did git tite, he didn't cuss Ham at all.

3. That ef he did cuss Ham, the cuss wurn't intended to extend beyond Canaan at the furthest, and hence his descendants go scot free.

4. That of the curse wuz really and trooly intended to attach to all uv Ham's desendents, irrespective uv color, to the end uv time, it hain't uv no effeck in Kentucky, as that State hez allus run irrespective uv any code cept in wich ez hez bin adopted by her Legislacher.

5. That the theory that the nigger, irrespective uv color, is a beast, is a delooshun, a snare, which we hev allus practically hald, no matter what we may, the effect, hev sed; ez the number of mulattoes, to say nothin uv them still further bleached in Kentucky, abundantly proves.

6. That the Ethiopian, irrespective uv color, is trooly a man and a brother, and the female Ethiopian, also irrespective uv color, trooly a woman and a sister.

Resolved, That this Institoot, whose name is now so happily changed, shel be conducted upon the principles uv strict skality, irrespective uv color.

Resolved, That when we reflect that the bloated aristocracy of England interdoost, and the early settlers uv Massachoosetts, sanktshuned, slavery on this continent, forcin it, really, onto us, we bile with indignashun toward em and kin hardly restrain ourselves.

Resolved, That at the tables, in the choice uv rooms, and in all matters where there is a choice, the African man and brother, irrespective uv color, shel hev the precedence.

esolved, That Oberlin College, by not givin the sons of Ham, irrespective uv color, the precedence, shows clearly that it is accoated by narreminded prejudice wich deserves the reprobation uv every lover uv his kind.

Resolved, That the Ethiopian, irrespective uv color, kin change his skin, and that his oder, of he hez any, is rather pleasant than otherwise.

Resolved, That we look with loathin upon the States north, which, allus professin friendship for the noble black man uv the Cotton field, refooze to take him to their buzzums, irrespective uv color.

Resolved, That of Massachoositts and Vermont, and Northern Illinoise, and the Western Reserve, in Ohio, are honest in their professions uv love for the negro, they will come down with donashuns to assist in the completion uv the Academy.

Deekin Pogram didn't know about all this. He hed bin edikatied in Ham and Hager, and wuz a bleever in Onesimus. He doubted—Sposen after all this concession the nigger shood play off onto us? Sposen he shoodent vote with us after all, but cling to his Northern friends? Or spose he shood vote with us, and we shood thro his vote git controle, what then? How cood we redoose em to ther normal condition agin after all this palavtin.

Bascom replied that he wuz surprised at the Deekin's obtoosnis. First, of they did vote with the Ablishonists we wuz no worse off, ez that wuz whot they proposed to do eny how. Ef, on the other hand, they didn't, what then? The trouble with em now is, they know too much. "Let em," sed Bascom, warmin up, "let em associate with us a year, let em vote with us, et seltry, and in twelve months they're precisely fitted again to be servance unto ther brethern. Look," sed he, "at the Northern Dimocrasy, and see to what we may hope to bring those men in time."

But little more bisness wuz transacted—Beverly Hale, of South Carolina, was unanimously called to a Professorship, and a young gentleman uv color who, from his strong resemblance to Elder Gavitt, ought to hev birnis capacity, wuz unanimously elected a member of the Board. The yoonyon is perfect.—Ham and Japheth have shaken hands and are embracing each other.

May prosperity attend the nupchels and may the issue be fortunate. I hev got over the disgust attendant upon the fust chill and am censekently feelin well.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.
(Which is Postmaster,) and Professor in the Ham and Japheth Free Academy for the development uv the intellek uv all races irrespective uv color.

Pleasant Words.

Gen. Nettleton, editor of the Sandusky Register is in Washington, and in an editorial letter to his paper regarding the prospects of the nation, he says:

"From this outlook the political affairs of the nation have not had a more cheering aspect since the fall of Richmond. The problem of reconstruction is at last solved, justly, wisely, and well. Out of the long turmoil the nation is rising crowned with righteousness and therefore with peace. Everything is working well. Apparently nothing can now happen to prevent or long delay the consummation longed for by every patriot of the land. All that is now needed is steadiness on the part of those who have won the long battle. Let the great Republican party, the party of history, and the party of destiny, stand unbroken and unmoved in the hour of victory as it has stood in the days of danger and struggle. The Union Republican party must continue to rule the nation it has saved.

QUARRELING.—If anything in the world will make a man feel badly, except pinching his fingers in the crack of a door, it is unquestionably a quarrel. No man ever fails to think less of himself after it, than before. It degrades him in the eyes of others, and, what is worse, blunts his sensibilities on the one hand, and increases the power of passionate irritability on the other. The truth is, the more peaceably and quietly we get on, the better for our neighbors. In nine cases out of ten the course is, if a man cheats you, cease to deal with him; if he is abusive, quit his company; if he slanders you, take care to live so that nobody will believe him. No matter who he is or how he misuses you, the wisest way is to let him alone, for there is nothing better than this cool, calm, and quiet way of dealing with the wrongs we meet with.

A Vote for the Soldiers.

The Border Sentinel, an Indiana Copperhead sheet, publishes a new Democratic campaign song. We publish one verse, calculated no doubt to win the votes of soldiers:

Three Hundred thousand Yanks a
Are stiff in Southern dust;
We "got" three hundred thousand
Before they "conquered" us.
They died of Southern fever,
And Southern steel and shot;
I wish they were three million,
Instead of what we got.

Spiritualism—Reappearance of Margaretta Fox.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Express has the following:

We learn that one of the original "Fox girls," who in 1848-49--50 visited this city and by or through whom the strange and inexplicable manifestations called "spirit rappings" and "Rochester knockings" were made, has returned here, and intends to afford those who desire to hear the remarkable sounds which formerly created a profound excitement throughout the country, an opportunity of doing so.

The elder of the two girls who first introduced the rappings here, a married woman, who resided in this city at the time, became quite as remarkable medium as the younger members of the family, and was even regarded as producing more powerful and remarkable manifestations. The younger sister remains in New York, and retains her spiritual powers, but attends no public "circles."

Margaretta—now here—while in Philadelphia in 1852, giving public "manifestations," met the late Dr. Elisha Kent Kane. After her engagement to Dr. Kane, (by whom she was placed at school during his absence on his last expedition to the Arctic seas,) and at his request she desisted from the exercise of mediumship in public. But while residing recently with a sister in Canada, the rapping recommenced, and her return to this city to resume the public manifestations, was imposed by the persistent commands of the invisible agents. In obedience to this, and upon a release from the obligation given to the Doctor by the same means, she appears here.

The President and Gen. Sheridan

The removal of General Sheridan has not only been seriously contemplated by the President, but was very recently on the eve of being executed. The plan was to place General Rousseau in his place. Senator Patterson, of Tennessee, for one of the White House clique, opposed it, on the ground that when the nomination of Rousseau was under consideration in Executive session that the question was asked him directly whether in case of confirmation he would not be sent to relieve Sheridan, and that he, Patterson, made a most positive statement that no such change was contemplated, or would follow. To this Mr. Johnson replies to his son-in-law that no one had any authority to make such pledges.—But the great and effective opposition to the removal has come from the War Department and from General Grant, and this has been of such a positive character as to deter the President from following his inclination and doing as his rebel friends desire.

KISSING.—Josh Billings says there is "one cold, blue, lean kiss, that always makes him shiver to see. Two persons, (ov the femail persuasion) who hev witnesst a grate many more younger and more pulpy daze, meet in sum public place, and not having saw each other for twenty-four hours, sha kiss immegiately—then tha tork about the weather and the young man who preached yesterday, and then tha kiss immegiately, and then tha blush and larf at what tha say to each other, and kiss again immegiately. This kind ov kissing always put me in mind ov tew old flints trieing to strike fire."

IN Buffalo, a few days ago, a mischievous fellow put a dead mouse in his sister's waterfall—a splendid one she had just purchased. In a short time a strong odor was discernible wherever she went, which no one could account for, until the brother offered a wager there was a mouse in her waterfall. She accepted, and of course lost; but the last that was seen of the mischievous brother he was making rapid tracks for the depot prepared for a long journey.

A COLD WET SUMMER—French scientific men predict that the summer will be cold and wet like that of last year. They base the prediction on the fact that immense masses of ice have broken, or are about to break away from the extreme North, producing cold and vapor. The weather of the past few days would seem to indicate a verification of this singular prediction.

A LETTER from Springfield, Ohio, to the Cincinnati Gazette, says: All the land is white with May blossoms, and still there has been no frost. There has not been for years so fine a prospect for fruit in the Miami Valley as now. The air is filled with the fragrance of the cherry, plum, and peach, while all the small fruits, give abundant promise, and even the peach seems determined to defy Jack Frost and show what it can do.

SENATOR Wilson in his speech in Charleston last week, said: "I say to you men of Charleston, your cause is lost, and lost forever.—Your State, which had her fortune invested in lands and bondmen; has become in proportion to her numbers, the poorest State in the Union. No State has felt the effects of this rebellion more than South Carolina."

IT is understood that Hon. John Cessna, under an appointment from the late State temperance convention, is preparing a bill designed to suppress the liquor traffic in Pennsylvania, which will be presented at the next session of the Legislature.

A schoolmaster not many miles from Boston Common was whittling a stick one day last week, and accidentally cut his finger, which brought out the exclamation, "God!" Instantly seeing several boys near him, he added—"save the Commonwealth."

A CHAP who was told by a colporteur to "remember Lot's wife," replied that he had trouble enough with his own wife, without remembering other men's wives.

THE BEAVER ARGUS.

J. WEYAND,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

MAY 22, 1867.

GEORGE BANCROFT, the historian, has been appointed Minister to Prussia, in place of Mr. Wright, who died a short time ago, in Berlin.—A rumor prevails that Mr. Bancroft will not accept the appointment.

GEN. GRANT and his military staff are now in the vicinity of Richmond, looking over the battle fields near that city. The Richmond papers, in noticing the fact, suggest that General Lee should accompany them in their journeyings.

GEN. MASSEY an ex-confederate officer, afterwards a Fenian General, and who recently turned informer, and betrayed the Fenian cause in Ireland, is said to have arrived in Canada a few days ago. The Fenians should have reflected that an Irishman who had sworn allegiance to this country, then, regardless of his oath, aided in an attempt to destroy it, would very likely betray them whenever he felt it his interest to do so.

A CONTEMPORARY in concluding an article on the release of Jeff. Davis, piles it up on that individual as follows:

"His name will be a hissing and a by-word so long as he lives, and the very worms will vomit when they come to knaw at his rotton heart."

We have't much sympathy for Jeff., but we pity the worms.

HORACE GREELY, we suspect, has not added many names to his list of friends, on account of his interference in the release of Jeff. Davis. His personal adherents claim that his motive in becoming one of Davis' bondsmen was humanity, while others insist that he was governed in the matter by a desire to further his own popularity in the Southern States. However this may be, we incline to the opinion that he has damaged his reputation as a leader For the Union organization, and that the blacks particularly, will not, since he has clasped hands with the arch traitor himself, repose the same confidence in him in the future, that they have in the past. In the West too the leading newspapers are opening up a telling fire, which will excite a feeling toward him that he little expected when engineering Jeff. Davis through the Court at Richmond.

ROBERT FOGLER, who was convicted in the Washington county court in February last for the murder of Robert W. Dinsmore, was executed on last Wednesday in the Borough of Washington. Before his execution he placed a written confession in the hands of his friends, signed by himself and witnessed by four or five others, and which he desired to have published in the Washington, Pittsburgh and Beaver papers. This confession is quite lengthy—too long for our crowded columns—but in our next we shall endeavor to find room for such portions of it as relate to the influences brought to bear upon Fogler before the commission of the deed, and the alleged disreputable course pursued towards him by his counsel before and during his trial. If his statements are true, and we see no cause to doubt them, the Montgomery family, as well as Fogler's attornies, occupy a very unenviable position before the world.

The latter, if Fogler is not guilty of falsehood in his dying confession, should be stricken from the list of practicing attornies, and in every possible manner be made to feel the dishonor they have brought upon the profession, and the infamy with which their course towards an unsuspecting client has covered them.

RUFFIANISM has not yet died out in the South, and free speech appears almost as remote as ever in that locality. On the 14th of this month, Hon. William D. Kelley of this State, who is now on a speaking tour in the Southern States addressed a large meeting at Mobile. He had been speaking but a short time when the indications of a row developed themselves, and soon after a bloody attack was made upon Judge Kelley and his friends by the ex rebels who appeared to be present in a large body. Several shots were fired directly at the Judge, who however escaped unharmed. As it was, he was forced to quit speaking and his friends fearing that his life would be taken, he was hurried out of the crowd to his hotel. In the melee three men were killed, and ten wounded. Had Union troops not been hurriedly brought to the ground a desperate riot would no doubt have occurred. Take the military from the lately seceded States, and neither life nor property would be safe within their limits. Thanks to Congress for the Reconstruction Bill, which furnishes the only protection now enjoyed by the Unionists of the Southern States.

DR. BOYD, a gentleman who honorably aided in the escape of slaves, was sentenced for this offense to fifteen years in the prison of the District of Columbia, but was pardoned by Mr. Lincoln after having served eighteen months of the term. When Dr. Boyd lately applied for registry in Washington, he was refused, on the ground that no one could be registered who had been "convicted of an infamous offense." He appealed to the Supreme Court of the District, and it has promptly upset this atrociously absurd ruling. Judge Olin holds that the President's pardon restored Dr. Boyd to his political rights, and Judge Fisher that he has not committed an infamous crime. We are glad to think that by no accident could the District Judges have been induced to serve Slavery after its death and burial.—N. Y. Tribune.

AN extensive gang of thieves has been discovered in Washington, Washington county. A "nice young man" had rented a ware house in that place, and himself and confederates were secreting their stolen property in it.—Three of the party have been arrested, and developements implicating others are looked for. Washington county is certainly becoming a "hard place."

SECRETARY STANTON is being vigorously urged in the Western States for the next Presidency of the United States. The St. Louis Democrat hopes he will be the nominee of the Union party, and urges the selection of a citizen of Missouri for Vice President. Which it prefers for the last-named office is not stated

To the Republicans of the Union.

The National Union Committee appeal to the Republicans of every State, for their assistance and co-operation in this auspicious crises of our country.

We deem it of the highest importance that the Republicans of each State should immediately re-organize for the remaining elections of 1867, preparatory to the coming Presidential contest. Especially should this organization be immediately effected in those States which have never before recognized as the only just basis of government the equal and inalienable rights of man. Not a day should be lost in forming and strengthening within those States a public sentiment in consonance with the principles which underlie the great political organization to which we belong.

To this end, we desire to prosecute a systematic and thorough canvass of the Southern States, by the most efficient speakers of both races. We would second their efforts by a distribution of documents, enforcing the principles, policy and aims of the Republican party. We would call, in every locality where it is possible, meetings for discussion, where those who are with us in principle may learn to act with unity and energy. These measures are required to bring out the votes of that large body of Republican Unionists who now render the Southern States a battle-field of principle. It is the pressing need of the hour that bold, judicious, and able men thoroughly imbued with our creed, should there explain our principles, establish our faithfulness to them, and prove that national greatness and human freedom depend upon the permanent triumph of our cause.

Beyond this, it is most essential that we should now establish in those States, Free Thought, Free Speech and a Free Press.—Every part of this Republic must be open to the discussion of principles and measures.—This must be sustained, as a cardinal point in our creed, at any and every hazard. Efforts to intimidate the humble and ignorant voter on the part of the Southern planter, must be met with the spirit of freedom, and the determination which a just cause sanctions.

In time past, the Republican party has struggled against the unjust reproach of being sectional in its aims and character, though its purposes and its means of effecting them were such as the fathers of the Republic approved. It was accused of being governed by selfish motives, and of desiring to aggrandize the North at the expense of the South. Its adversaries having the power to silence and to crush all opposition, denied all discussion, and overawed even freedom of thought in fifteen States of the Union. It is therefore now an imperative duty, which we owe to our party and to ourselves, to embrace the first opportunity of truly representing to those States how consistently we have contended for the interest, welfare and freedom of the whole Union.

The overthrow of Slavery and the Rebellion, and the enfranchisement of the freedmen, rendering this overthrow secure and final, have happily vindicated our course and organization; but it is necessary to stamp the conviction of our loyality and fidelity to the right, irrespective of section or race, upon the reconstructed States. For the first time in many years, the enthusiastic followers of our flag and confessors of our faith are there taking part in the popular gatherings, and in many of the Southern States, we have reason to believe that they form a decided majority.—They are however, without organization, and lack the cohesion and discipline necessary to success. Three-fourths of the Republicans have never voted, and have no practical knowledge of the means whereby the popular will is expressed. With many of them, the habit is fixed, of rendering implicit obedience to able and dexterous politicians who are implacably hostile to our principles and determined on the prostration of our cause.

Our immediate action is therefore imperative. We cannot delay without imperiling all for which so much has been sacrificed in the past. Confident in our strength in the North, and the West, and the Pacific States, we must not forget that we have a great duty to perform toward the loyal and true men of the South.

REPUBLICANS! our appeal is to you, to carry on and sustain the work which a few loyal and true men have so nobly begun. We cannot ask speakers, in addition to giving their time and talents for months to this labor, to defray their own necessary expenses. We cannot print and distribute documents of the character required without a heavy outlay.—We have no means or reliance except upon the generous spirit of that great party which holds the claims of Humanity and Freedom above all price. The patronage of the Government brought into power by the statesmanship, the courage, and the loyality of that party, will not aid us in this good work.

We must therefore appeal directly and personally to you. If you are rich, give generously. If poor, send us whatever you can afford. The generous purpose and the noble aim sanctify the humblest efforts. At all events, act promptly, and let us feel that the sympathy of the Republican party is with us in our purpose of making this great land the home of true Republican principles, where distinctions of race and color are unknown, and where Liberty, Virtue and Intelligence form the enduring basis of our greatness and prosperity.

POSTMASTER GENERAL RANDALL has decided to dispense with the publication of lists of uncalled for letters. It will be hereafter posted upon the bulletin boards of the various post-offices, and such persons as desire can then print it.

GOV. GEARY, on Sunday received a dispatch from General Gillem, commanding at Vicksburg, announcing the arrest of O. R. Broome, the murderer of the brothers Zook, of Lancaster.

The Jeff. Davis Sensation.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 21.—A busy scene presented itself at Carroll Hall, early to-day, preparations being made by Davis and family for departure. At 7 o'clock General Burton arrived at Carroll Hall and found Davis ready to accompany him. Leave taking was exchanged by him and his family with their friends in the fort, and General Burton walked on one side of Davis, and Dr. Cooper, his physician, on the other. Robert Ould and a brother of Davis, who arrived last evening from Vicksburgh, escorted Mrs Davis and her sister, and they were followed by several friends. A large crowd gathered on the wharf around the steamboat landing, to witness the the departure of Davis. He conversed with his friends cheerfully aboard the steamer John Sylvester. He looked much better than when imprisoned, though very pale and attenuated. Marshals Underwood and Duncan accompany him to Richmond.

RICHMOND, May 11.—The steamer John Sylvester, with Jeff Davis, on board, arrived this afternoon. Long before his arrival military arrangements had been made by General Schofield. A detachment of the 29th regiment was present, and sentinels were posted at intervals, enclosing about two hundred yards square of the wharf. Outside of this a large crowd of negroes and a few whites were gathered. The brows of the surrounding hills were thickly covered with spectators. Major Vance, of General Schofield's staff, who was in command, had a detachment of the 8th artillery, numbering about fifty, mounted as a guard for the carriages. As the steamer hove in sight, with the national flag flying, the most intense anxiety was exhibited by the crowd to get closer, but there was no demonstration, no cheering nor hissing. When the steamer was made fast, Hon. James Lyons went aboard and had a feeling meeting with Davis. He brought Mrs. Davis ashore and conducted her to a carriage, followed by her two servants. In a few minutes Davis came over the gangway plank, accompanied by General Burton and Dr. Cooper. The party immediately got into carriages, and sur rounded by the mounted guards, drove rapidly by a side street up towards the Spottswood Hotel, thus disappointing large crowds who had gathered on Main street near the wharf to see Davis.

Davis was cheerful, and had no guard, walking freely about the boat, conversing with passengers, who were all anxious to speak to him. He said little about his imprisonment, but spoke in terms of the warmest affection of Ex-President Pierce, who visited him on Thursday last. He said there was no man living for whom he entertained a higher regard.

At Brandon, on the way up, a number of ladies had gathered to speak to him, who shed tears at seeing him. They had been acquainted with his family during the war.

A lady named Mrs. Davis, of Richmond, who got on the boat at Norfolk, died in the ladies' cabin, just before reaching here.

Two bridal parties came up on the same boat.

There is a large and curious crowd, all orderly, around the Spottswood Hotel, waiting to get a glimpse of the prisoner. He will remain in General Burton's charge until produced in Court on Monday.

The citizens generally, in deference to the wishes of the authorities, staid away from the docks. Many of them were stationed in doors and windows along the main street to see Davis as the procession passed up. He occupies the same rooms at the Spottswood Hotel that he did in 1861. It is the opinion, as expressed by one of the counsels, that if bail is refused him, the Executive will interfere to prevent confinement until his trial comes off. Many of Mr. Davis' friends will visit him to-night and to-morrow.

RICHMOND, May 11.—The crowd around the Spottswood Hotel dispersed after vainly waiting to see Davis. He has a private parlor, and takes his meals in his own room.—This evening he received visits from nearly one hundred prominent citizens, among them the Pastor of St. Paul's Church, where he first received the news of the breaking of Lee's lines. There is no restriction of his movements, and he has the liberty of the house.

In view of the recent riot, the 11th United States infantry is about to encamp permanently at City Springs Park, within the city.

Some citizens laid before General Schofield a complaint about the language used at the colored meeting on Friday night, as likely to produce further disturbance, and the matter is being investigated.

A large number of permits are being granted to be present at the session of the United States Court on Monday, many of them to colored people.

RICHMOND, May 13.—The United States Court was packed this morning. A military guard was placed around it, and there was a strong police force inside. About twenty ladies were among the spectator. A number of negroes were also present as spectators. At 11 o'clock Mr. Davis was brought in and took a seat next to the prisoners' box, with General Burton and the United States Marshal. A servant accompanied Mr. Davis.

Mr. Davis was sitting near an open window, and made the remark, "It is a little cold, isn't it?" when he was removed to a seat nearer his counsel, in front of the Judge.

General Burton's return to the writ of habeas corpus was read, and the Judge complimented General Burton in obeying the laws, and relieved him of the custody of Davis, and the Marshal immediately served on him a bench warrant, to answer the Norfolk indictment.

Mr. O'Connor spoke of Mr. Davis' long imprisonment and feeble health, and asked that he be bailed.

There being no opposition on the part of the prosecution, who fixed the amount of bail at $100,000, the Judge announced his readiness to accept bail, stating at the same time, that the responsibility of delay in bringing the case into court rested upon the Government and not upon the District Attorney. He said one-half of the amount of bail should be given by persons residing in the State of Virginia.—The sureties then came forward. Horace Greely being among the first, followed by Mr. Schell, of New York, and Mr. Jacklan, of Philadelphia, and others. A number of gentlemen residing in Virginia offered their names as bail.

Davis was congratulated by several of his friends, but there was no demonstration or noise of any kind.

After giving bail to appear at the November term of Court, Davis was taken by coach to the Spottswood House, from thence he proceeded to New York en-route for Canada, where he will stay for some time to come.

FROM MOBILE.

Mass Meeting—Judge Kelley Speaks—He is Interrupted—Serious Riot Takes Place—Negroes and White Man Shot—Military Ordered Out.

MOBILE, May 14.—A large number of negroes met to-night at the corner of Grand and Royal streets, to hear Judge Kelley. A number of whites were also present, and everything was remarkably quiet till Kelley began speaking, saying he had come to discuss the rights of negroes. He was interrupted by a white man on the outskirts of the crowd, whom the police promptly arrested. The first shot was fired at this point. It was impossible to tell who it was fired by. Instantly shots followed from the negroes, who were all armed. Firing then became general. Immediately after the firing began, an alarm was rung and continued ringing during the progress of the riot, which lasted about an hour. A large majority of the shots were fired by negroes, as but very few of the whites present were armed. The police succeeded in quelling the riot before the arrival of companies of the 15th regiment, who were ordered out by Colonel Sheppard, and appeared on the ground as soon as possible, but not until the meeting had been dispersed. They now guard the streets. Everything is quiet and little or no excitement at midnight. It is impossible to state the number of killed or wounded. Three men are known to have been killed, one white and two negroes. A number are wounded, among them one policeman and a white boy. Judge Kelley is at the Battle House, and leaves to-morrow for Montgomery.

FOUR men were killed and twenty wounded in Mobile, and for what reason? Not because Judge Kelley uttered radical opinions, but because in Mobile the spirit of Rebellion is still unconquered. But the other day one of her papers boasted that Mobile was the last city to surrender to the United States. In spirit and intention the riot differed not one whit from any battle of the war, and probably only want of opprotunity prevented a massacre as bloody as that in New-Orleans. If a citizen of the United States cannot address a meeting in Mobile safely, then Alabama cannot safely be admitted to representation in Congress.—There is but one way to decide this difficulty—a deep and broad line must be drawn between loyality and treason, such a line as Gen. Sheridan has drawn in Louisiana. After the experience of New-Orleans it is not creditable to the military government of Alabama that this riot should have occurred. That Judge Kelley refused to speak again is not surprising; he should have been protected at first, and after so narrowly escaping with his life, he has wisely declined to offer himself again as a target to the Rebels of Mobile.—N. Y. Tribune.

A serious riot occurred on the 14th inst, at Mobile, in which a number of persons were killed and wounded. The riot originated in an attack on Judge Kelley, while speaking, by some persons of Rebel sympathies, and was an out-cropping of the spirit of Ft. Pillow and New-Orleans. The Judge was defended, and his audience held its own.

MEADVILLE, PA., May 14.—Our charter election came off yesterday, and the Republicans elected their ticket without opposition.—This is quite a change about, as last month the Democrats carried the town by a small majority.

IT is said speaker Colfax expressed the opinion a few days ago, that there would be no meeting of Congress in July, and none of the Radicals now here, including Boutwell, Ashley, Butler, Williams, and others of the House, have any idea that a quorum will be found present in either branch of Congress at that time.

Recovered.—Mrs. Reed, who was stunned by lightning last week, was not as seriously injured as was supposed, and is now convalescent.

Gipsies.—A company of people leading this strange life, encamped last week near the Railroad Bridge, at Beaver Falls. They had a number of good horses and covered wagons.

Committed to Jail Again.—Mr. Swain who was committed to jail two or three weeks ago, on a charge of incendiarism, and was since liberated on bail, has been again committed on several new charges.

Rev. Mr. Gorham's Lecture on matrimony was delivered last Wednesday night to a quite large audience. The lecture was as interesting as one of its nature could be expected to be.

Grey Eagle Shot.—A rare prize was secured a few days ago in the town of Fairview, Ohio township, this county. A large eagle was seen soaring over the town, and a gentleman took his gun and shot at it, bringing it to the ground. Upon measuring it was found to measure 7 feet from tip to tip.

Arm Broken.—It is said that Mr. McKenzie, of Industry, has succeeded in tracing the persons who broke into his house some days ago to Pittsburgh, learning on his way, that one of the robbers, in his flight, had applied to a physician and got his arm set, it having been broken by Mr. McKenzie's blow with the chair.

Hats and Caps.—The attention of readers is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Graham & Byrne, which will be found in to-day's issue. Messrs. G. & B. have a very large stock of excellent goods purchased at low rates, and which they offer at a very slight advance on cost. Their stock is extensive as our readers have only to call and see for themselves.

Large Income.—Old John Rennehoff, the Petroleum King, of Rennehoff Run, returned an income of $150,000 last year. This is the largest individual income returned in Venango county.

Revising Commissioners.—Governor Geary has appointed Hon. David Derrickson, of Meadville, Wayne McVeagh, of West Chester, and William M. Hall, of Bedford, as commissioners to revise the penal code under the act passed at the last session. Messrs. Derrickson, McVeagh and Hall are well known lawyers, and will perform their arduous duties ably and promptly.

Robbery Attempted.—A robber attempted to effect an entrance into the store of Messrs. J. & T. Rusell, in Fairview, O. tp., this county. He had raised the window of the store room to get in, when the noise awakened a young man who was sleeping in the room, named Sanford Anderson, son of Mr. Hugh B. Anderson, of this place, who aroused the house with his cries of alarm. The robber turned and took to his heels. He was pursued some distance, when all traces of him were lost.—He is described by the young man as a large, heavy-built man, with broad-rimmed hat.

Notice to the Members of the Penn'a Reserve Corps.—The first annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Reserve Association will be held in Harrisburg on the 30th inst.

All members of the aforesaid corps are respectfully invited to attend.

The oration will be delivered by Gen. Wm. McCandless, late of 2d Regiment, at the State Capital Hotel.

Any member desirious of attending will give notice, as soon as convenient, to H. J. Chandler, Rochester, Pa.

Subscribe for your Home Paper.—Says the Harrisburg Telegraph: "The Republican who wants to be of service to his party and render practical aid in securing the triumph of his principles, can best succeed by subscribing for a local Republican newspaper.—There never was a time more necessary than now to secure a larger circulation for Republican newspapers. The people want the truth, and the fully source from which to derive it in its fairest and most sublime shape, is in the columns of a manfully conducted Republican newspaper.

We trust for these reasons, that our Republican friends will subscribe for their local organs. Every Republican family in the State should have the benefit of at least one Republican newspaper. Such a Journal is the great auxiliary of free school education. We hope our friends will act on this truth, and all who are not subscribers will at once subscribe for a Republican journal.

To the Friends of the Blind.—The principal, officers, and 30 Pupils of the Penn'a. Institution for the instruction of the Blind, of Philadelphia, will visit Pittsburgh and remain during the week, commencing on Monday, May 20. They will give several Musical Exhibitions, and also the method of reading the raised letters, and other interesting exercises. The object of the visit is to exhibit the capacity of the Blind to receive instruction in every branch of knowledge, and to acquire mechanical trades for their self-support.—As many of the Western counties have never sent their Blind children to the Institution at Philadelphia, their friends are notified that the State provides for those who are indigent. Application may be made to William Chapin, Principal.

MIDDLETON'S BODY FOUND!

A Mystery Partially Unravelled!

A few days ago, notice was received here by the friends of Middleton who so mysteriously disappeared in November last, that a body supposed to be his corpse was found in the Ohio river near New Cumberland, some thirty or forty miles below this place. His relatives went from here on Monday morning and returned on the night train, having the remains in their custody, and fully identifying it as being the corpse of Thomas Middleton. The family have taken it to their home in Fallston, this county, and an inquest was held yesterday on it. What the result of the investigation is we have not yet learned, but presume the jury have decided that he was murdered, as it is alleged that the body shows marks of having been stabbed in two or three different places—twice in the region of the heart or abdomen, and once through the hand, and also having a cut on the neck. If we are not misinformed as to this, and the Coroner's Jury have rendered a verdict in accordance with these alleged facts, there will doubtless be some arrests made before this week expires, and the Middleton mystery, which appeared so impenetrable a short time ago, will more than likely soon be solved.

Lighting Up.—Beaver is not lit up with gas, but notwithstanding this darkness does not prevail within its limits. Not long ago Mr. Joseph Hall of the National Hotel, caused a large lamp to be put upon a post near his house, which emits a steady, strong light for rods away from the building. Mr. J. B. Rhodes of the Drug Store at McKinley's corner has "followed suit," and put up a large sized lamp, which sheds its rays to all around." Others on the Main Street intend doing likewise, and we presume it will be but a short time until petroleum lights up the principle throughfare in Beaver from one end of it to the other.

Opening of the Public School.—The Public School of this place opened on Monday last with one hundred and seventy-five pupils.—The school will in all probability average about two hundred, when once the children are all in attendance. The teachers are as follows: Principal—B. D. Lakin. Assistants—Misses Whipple, Tucker and Woodrow. The Principal, Mr. Lakin, has been for a number of years in charge of the High School in Cannonsburg, Washington county, and comes highly recommended as an efficient educator. The Assistants are also flatteringly spoken of, and will no doubt do their part faithfully and well.

Buried in this County.—Fogler, who was executed in Washington county on Wednesday of last week, was buried in this county,—at Georgetown. His mother died in that vicinity some years ago, and it was his request before the execution, that his remains should be deposited near where she was buried.

Robbery Committed.—The house of a negro barber named Tanner, in Rochester, was entered by robbers last Thursday night.—Tanner and his wife were in the house and abed while the robbery was being committed, and heard distinctly the movements of the burglars, as they passed to and fro in the house, appropriating all they could lay their hands on. He did not rise to see who they were, supposing the noise was occasioned by the return of another male occupant of the house, by the name of Jackson, till after some time, as they were departing with their booty, he suspicioned the true facts of the case, and pursued them, partially undressed as he was, causing them to drop one of the trunks they were carrying off. Owing to the scantiness of his attire, he was obliged to abandon the pursuit, and return to the house and dress himself; which when he had done, the robbers had disappeared. Beside other things, the robbers had possession of two trunks, one containing a suit and other articles of clothing, belonging to Jackson, worth $160, and the other trunk containing some female apparel, which latter trunk they dropped, but successfully escaped with the other. The house was entered systematically, a hole having been cut in a window pane, through which one of the robbers inserted his arm and removed the fastenings; the window was then removed, and the robbers entered.

Mr. Editor: The announcement in your last issue of the name of Lieut. Eben Allison late of Co. "A," 15th Pa. Cav., as a candidate for the nomination for the office of Treasurer of Beaver county, gives entire satisfaction to all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. It is proper to state for the benefit of those who may be ignorant of the fact that he served a term of three years in the army with credit to himself and his command—serving thirty one months as non-commissioned officer and private. His uniformly good character, together with the above facts recommend him to the consideration of our citizens. Lieut. A. has since his return (two years) been the victim of disease contracted by exposure while doing his duty as a patriotic defender of his country, now, temporarily at least, physically, disqualified from engaging in business away from home, adds another reason to those above mentioned, why the benefits of the office at the disposal of the people should be conferred upon him. Let us support him who has so manfully helped to defend us. W. F. C.

Industry, May 18, 1867.

Ed. Argus: It may be a matter of some interest to many of your readers to know of an important discovery lately made in vicinity of this place.

A large body of iron ore has been opened on the land of Dr. S. P. Cummins. Its discovery, I am informed, resulted from the following circumstances

An excavation had been made some time ago on a search after fire clay, when some boulders were encountered that were pronounced limestone, and the search for clay at that point abandoned.

Since that time a large vein of excellent fire clay having been opened at another spot on the same property, the Doctor concluded also to test the vein of limestone, and set a hand to digging for the purpose of opening up a quarry, but when the product come to be tested, it was found to be iron ore of excellent quality.

There appears to be a large body of it imbedded in fire clay, and the same is found on opposite sides of the hill, indicating its continuence throughout.

This may prove a source of great wealth to this and neighboring sections of Beaver county, as there is a fine body of coal in same hills, and the locality upon the railroad and river the most convenient one that could be desired for manufacturing purposes.

Would it not pay some of our neighboring iron manufactories of Allegheny county to give their attention to this matter?

Observer.

The Late Robberies at Industry.—Last week we briefly mentioned the robbery of Mr. Wm. H. McKenzie, at Industry. A correspondent, signing himself "Veritas," sends us the following additional particulars: On the morning of the 12th inst., between the hours of 1 2 o'clock, the house of Wm. H. McKenzie, of Industry, was burglariously entered and plundered. The robbers, two in number, succeeded in forcing an entrance by means of a window which, unfortunately, had been accidentally left unfastened. After examining the bureaus, book-cases, etc., they proceeded up stairs to the sleeping apartment of Mr. McKenzie, from whence they took his pantaloons with his pocket book containing over $260.00. He heard them in the room, but supposed it was a dog belonging to the family. After going down stairs they upset some kitchen utensils, whereupon Mr. McKenzie sprang up and proceeded to ascertain the cause of the noise. On entering the room where the burglars were the light from a dark lantern was thrown in his face. Perceiving the outline and form of the burglar in the obscurity behind the light, he realized the position and instantly grasping a chair, dealt the intruded a powerful blow, felling him to the floor at once.—Whilst engaged with this one, however, the other attacked him, striking him first on the face and head and again on the stomach, the latter blow paralyzing all his energies and producing intense sickness, and consequently, incapacitated him from any further effort.—Before any other assistance could be had, they succeeded in effecting their escape. A brother-in-law of Mr. McKenzie's was sleeping in the house at the time, and heard the noise but never having been in the house before, was somewhat confused and failed to reach the scene of action in time. Mr. McKenzie's pocket-book was found lying on the floor, rifled of its contents, amounting, as near as he can tell, to about two hundred and sixty dollars. Mr. McKenzie has entirely recovered from the effects of the assault. As yet no clue has been gained of the robbers. A party of three men were seen lounging along the river that afternoon, and a woman who happened to be up late that night saw them dropping their skiff down in the direction of Mr. McKenzie's. It is thought they were the party who committed the burglary.

Medical.

The Beaver County Medical Society met at the Doncaster House, Rochester, May 9th, 1867. Members present: Drs. J. M. Cummins, W. L. Morrow, D. McKinney, O. S. Cunningham, F. G. McPherson, D. S. Marquis Isaac Winans, and S. M. Ross. President D. Stanton being absent at the American Medical Association in convention at Cincinnati, the Vice President, J. M. Cummins, took the chair

A very interesting colloquium was had in regard to the high moral bearing and correct deportment which should characterize every member of this society, and thus promote the public good, and honor the medical profession.

Our delegates to the State Medical Convention were instructed to vote for the recognition of females as members of our profession who have a regular education in medical science and have a diploma from an approved school of medicine.

After which we had quite a protracted and profitable discussion on obstetrics; Drs. Jackson, Winans, McPherson and Ross exchanging their views freely.

With the utmost harmony and good feeling the society adjourned to meet in same place on the second Thursday of July next.

Reported.

The New Castle P. O.—The nomination of the President's Postmaster at New Castle, Lawrence county, not having been confirmed by the Senate, the Post Office Department has sent an agent out to take charge of the office, until Congress again meets. Mr. J. H. Ramsdell is the agent's name, and on Monday last he assumed the duties and responsibilities of the office.

The Southern Relief Fund—How the Money was Applied.—We have received from Moses Scott, Esq., the following letters, with a request for publication in the Argus.—They were handed to us last week, but too late for insertion in that issue. The letters fully explain themselves.

Beaver, Pa., May 7, 1867.

Rev. J. S. Travelli—Dear Sir: Some three weeks ago I got up a subscription paper in this place for the purpose of raising money for the relief of the destitute people of the South.—The amount contributed, $107.50, was sent to you per hand of the Rev. J. F. Dravo, for the purpose of having it forwarded to the place it was most needed.

I clip and enclose an editorial from the Beaver County Local, the Democratic organ of this county, of the 3d inst., in which it is charged that the money in question was obtained under false pretences, not being applied to the object intended by the contributors. Will you be so kind as to inform me at your earliest convenience as to where this money was sent, and what disposition was made of it.

Yours, Respectfully,

Moses Scott.

Pittsburgh, May 8, 1867.

Mr. Moses Scott—Dear Sir: Your favor of yesterday requesting me to inform you where the money collected at Beaver for the destitute of the South was sent and what disposition was made of it, is just received. With pleasure I haste to reply. The money was sent to Wm. F. Mitchell, of Nashville, Tenn., with instructions to distribute it among the destitute and suffering, irrespective of race or color, wherever he found the greatest destitution. The money, along with other moneys sent me for this purpose, was kept entirely separate from the funds of the Freedmen's Aid Association, and not a cent of it applied to the expenses of that association, but entirely to the relief of the destitute, both white and black. In all, I have received and sent away about nineteen hundred dollars to Wm. Mitchell. Of this, one thousand dollars were from our excellent friends at Economy, and five hundred and fifty dollars from the Young Men's Christian Association of Pittsburgh—sent to them for distribution. These parties understood fully that the money would be sent to Mr. Mitchell, and so desired it to be sent. In acknowledging the receipt of the other amounts received both in the newspapers and in the letters to those who sent it, I stated the same thing. Mr. Mitchell is well known in Pittsburgh as a most reliable, judicious, and trustworthy man, and felt the importance of distributing this sacred trust carefully. I received from him a few weeks ago an account of his distribution of a part of the money at Stevenson, Alabama. Here he had the assistance and co-operation of Mr. J. W. Buck, the Mayor, and his course was entirely approved by him and other prominent citizens. Indeed, the Mayor has given him a list of all the prominent cases of destitution in the neighborhood. Most of these families he saw himself, personally. Some of them, both white and black, had lost everything by the flood, and the relief afforded them will enable them to go ahead and raise something to support themselves and families. I have in my office a letter from Mr. Brown, a white man, sent by the Mayor, expressing the warmest thanks for the aid given him. He had lost everything by the flood, then built himself a log hut on the mountain side. This took fire and burned down, and soon after his wife died. Depressed and heart broken, no wonder he felt grateful. Not finding the actual suffering and starvation so great or so extensive as our letters represented, Mr. Mitchell has been making diligent inquiry as to places where the greatest suffering was reported. Last Saturday he was to go to DeKalb county, Georgia, near Cartersville, about ninety miles south of Chattanooga, where he had heard there was great destitution. Since this I have not heard from him. Part of the money was distributed at Florence, Alabama; a part also at Atlanta. From this statement, though we have not had Mr. Mitchell's final report, you can see how much reason there is for the gross and unjust charges of the editorial in the slip enclosed in your letter. To the best of my knowledge and belief, not one single cent of this money has gone "to procure Radical tracts and Radical speeches for negroes," but just in the most practical and best possible way, in my judgment, to make sure of its reaching the real sufferers. At least, so far as I know, Mr. Mitchell's course has been perfectly satisfactory to the donors of the money, where they have heard his reports as thus far received. I should think that any fair-minded man would feel deeply mortified at having made such groundless charges, if he could know how utterly without foundation they are.

Respectfully yours,

Jos. S. Travelli.

—It will be seen by reference to the resolutions which were passed at the relief meeting held in Pittsburgh on the 10th inst., which were published in the Pittsburgh Commercial the following day, that James P. Barr, Esq., and the Rev. Jos. S. Travelli, are authorized agents to receive contributions to aid the starving people of the South, and it matters not, then, as to which of these gentlemen contributions are sent.

The Beaver County Local is respectfully requested to copy the above correspondence.

Moses Scott.

Having secured the Agency for the Empire Sewing Machine!

I respectfully solicit an examination of the same by the public.

This Machine is constructed on the principle of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be simplicity and perfection combined

In a mechanical point of view, the advantages we claim for the "Empire Machine," are—

1st.—The method of driving the Needle Bar by a compound crank, which produces the same action as heretofore obtained by means of a Cam; but in a more durable and noiseless manner.

2d.—We use a rotating shaft above the table, and thus are enabled to give all the room required under the arm; without detriment to the durability of Machines; having a bearing directly over the Needle Bar.

3d.—Our Feed Wheel is a friction feed, and so constructed that there is but one joint in transmitting the motion from the rock shaft to the wheel, and unlike all others, cannot be effected by oil or dust.

4th.—The Rock Shaft that works the Feed motion also drives the Shuttle. The bearings of this Shaft and Centres are hardened steel and adjustable, so that we can take up the lost motion at will.

The following are the principal objections urged against Sewing Machines:

1. Excessive fatigue to the operator.
2. Liability to get out of order.
3. Expense, trouble, and loss of time in repairing.
4. Incapacity to sew every description of material.
5. Disagreeable noise while in operation.

The Empire Sewing Machine is Exempt from all these Objections.

It has a straight needle, perpendicular action, makes the LOCK or SHUTTLE STITCH, which will NEITHER RIP nor RAVEL, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nansook Muslin, with cotton, linen, or silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number.

IT HEMS, FELLS, BINDS, BRAIDS, TUCKS, QUILTS, PLAITS, and GATHERS.

Having neither CAM nor COG WHEEL, and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is Physically a Noiseless Machine.

CONVERSION OF 7 3-10S.

In reply to numerous inquiries in regard to the manner of converting the August 7 3-10s into the new 5-20 Gold Coupon Bond we make the following statement for the benefit of the holders of 7 3-10s, who may not be informed:

The Government computes the interest on both bonds in currency from the date of the maturity of the last coupon, allowing seven and three-tenths on the 7 3-10s, and charging six per cent on the 5-20s. For example: you sent to Washington $1,000 7 3-10 Bond which reaches there on

May 1st	$1,000
74 days interest (From Feb. 15.)	14 80
5-20s	$1,000
119 days interest (from Jan 1st)	19 56
(This is counted at 365 days per annum)	1,019 56
Allowed for 7 3-10,	1,014 60
You pay Government,	4 76

It will be seen by this that the Gold interest is given as currency, which is of itself a profit to the party converting the 7 3-10s of nearly eight dollars per $1,000, aside from the fact that at the present rate of Gold, the 5-20s pay over 8 per cent. per annum.

We are converting the 7 3-10s on much better terms than the Government, as the present buying and selling rates enables us to allow the holder of the 7 3-10s a better figure than has yet been offered by any one as a commission.

We also exchange the new 5-20 bond for the other Series of 7 3-10s on the most favorable terms.

Parties exchanging through us, in addition they to getting much better terms than they can from the Government, will have their 5-20s delivered to them immediately, thus saving delay. We also register any bonds sent to us without charge. On all bonds sent us by express we pay charges both ways, and send bonds promptly as directed.

GETTYSBURG ASYLUM

FOR INVALID SOLDIERS.

INCORPORATED by Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, March, 1867.

The Board of Supervisors appointed by the above Corporation to carry out the objects of the act of incorporation, respectfully announce to the public that the Legislature of Pennsylvania has authorized the raising of funds for the erection, establishment, and maintenance of an Asylum for invalid Soldiers of the late war, to be built on the Battle-field of Gettysburg, and as an inducement to patriotic citizens to contribute to this benevolent object, have empowered the orporation to distribute amongst the subscribers such articles of value and interest, from association with the late war, or any moneys, effects, property, or estate, real or personal, whatever, in this State or elsewhere, at such time or upon such terms, and in such way and manner whatsoever, as to them shall seem fit, any laws of this Commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding.

The enterprise is cordially recommended by the following named well-known gentlemen:

Major General George G. Meade,
Ex-Governor Andrew G Curtin,
Major General Galusha Pennypacker,
" " F. M. Gregory,
" " John R. Brooke,
" " Charles H. T Collis,

" " Wm. J. Bolton,
" " Sam'l M. Zulick,
" " John K. Murphy,
" " John F. Ballier,
" " T. F. McCoy,
" " R. E. Winslow,
" " Henry Pleasants,
" " J. P. C. Gobin,
" " J. M. Campbell,
" " Thos. M. Walker,
" " W. Cooper Tally,
" " D. M. M. Gregg,
Colonel F. S. Stumbaugh.

The site for the institution (thirty acres) has already been purchased, and it is hoped that the good work may commence before midsummer.

Subscriptions will be received at the office of the Association, No. 1126 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, on and after Monday, the 6th day of May, 1867.

For each subscription of five dollars a certificate will be issued, which will entitle the holder to such article of value as may be awarded to its number.

The first distribution of awards will be made immediately upon the receipt of 80,000 subscriptions, of $5 each.

The distribution will be public, and under the direct supervision of the Corporators.

Persons at a distance are requested to remit their subscriptions (when practicable) by Post office money order, or registered letter, to insure prompt delivery.

Direct all letters to

J. D. HOFFMAN,
SECRETARY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.
Box 1481, P. O., Philadelphia.

The following is a schedule of the awards to be made under the first distribution. The items of Diamonds and other precious stones were purchased from citizens of the South during the war, and their genuineness is certified to by Messrs. Henle & Bros., the most extensive diamond importers in the country, and by J. Hermann, diamond setter, New York.
